This licence is issued subject to the following conditions:—

- (1) The manufacturer shall ensure that the machine and every part thereof complies with the standards specified by rule 4 of the Dangerous Machines (Regulation) Rules, 1984.
- (2) Without prejudice to the generality of condition No. (1) above, the manufacturer shall ensure that the following parts are secured by safeguard of substantial construction:—
 - (a) The prime-mover and every part thereof.
 - (b) The transmission machinery and every part thereof.
 - (c) Every other dangerous part such as rollers, blowers, elevators and the like.
- (3) The manufacturer shall clearly and legibly provide the machine with danger signals indicating the point beyond which no limb shall be inserted for the purpose of feeding the machine or for any other purpose while the machine is in operation.
- (4) The manufacturer shall ensure that the following particulars are legibly and conspicuously marked or inscribed on every dangerous machine by such method as would make it indelible, namely:—
 - (a) the direction of the rotation and the number of rotations per minute;
 - (b) its power requirements; and
 - (c) the name and correct address of the manufacturer, the year of manufacture and the date, number and other particulars of the licence of the manufacturer.
- (5) Every manufacturer shall supply along with each dangerous machine a manual containing general instructions regarding the operation of such machine, and shall also include therein such cautions as may be prescribed.
- (6) Before, transferring the possession of the machine whether by sale, lease, hire or otherwise, the manufacturer shall deliver to the person acquiring the machine a declaration to the effect that the machine conforms to the standards laid down by or under this Act and also complies, in all respects, with the provisions of the Act and the rules and orders made thereunder.
- (7) Failure to comply with the conditions specified above or of any provision of the Act or rule or order made thereunder will make this licence liable to suspension/cancellation as provided in section 10.
